

The Emmons County Soil Conservation District 2026 College Scholarship Program

WHAT: One $1,500.00 scholarship will be awarded to the top essay entry.

TOPIC: Why is Preserving Native Grasslands Important for Conservation?

ELIGIBILITY:

- Applicants do not have to be pursuing a degree in agriculture
- Must be a high school senior
- Must reside in Emmons County or attend school in Emmons County and family owns/operates the majority of their land in Emmons County

Applications must be postmarked by April 10th, 2026.

Emmons County Soil Conservation Agricultural Scholarship

$1,500.00 Scholarship

Due APRIL 10th, 2026

WHY IS PRESERVING NATIVE GRASSLANDS IMPORTANT FOR CONSERVATION?

Scholarship essay must be typed and consist of two pages double spaced. Essay topic must be addressed within the entry.

Personal Information (please type or print)

Name

Mailing Address

City

State

Zip Code

Telephone

Email

Name of High School

City of High School

One $1,500.00 scholarship award will be given to the top essay entry. This scholarship is also available to students residing in Emmons County but attending school out of county. The scholarship check gets made payable to designated college student is attending. Individuals applying for this scholarship need not be pursuing a degree in agriculture to be eligible.

Verification

I certify that this entry is my own, original work, except where otherwise cited.

Signature

Date

Emmons County Soil Conservation
318 S. Broadway St.
Linton, ND 58852
701-254-4791 Ext. 3